RECORDS OF THE U.S. INFORMATION SERVICE IN CHINA: CHINESE PRESS REVIEWS AND SUMMARIES, 1944-1950

This collection of essential U.S. Information Service collections on the Civil War period provides a unique opportunity to understand immediate post-World War II Chinese history, comparative revolution, and early Cold War history. This combination of smaller press collections weave together the strands of military, social, political, and free world history and includes an analysis of how the Chinese Communist Party achieved victory in the Chinese civil war of 1946-1950.
